URGENT! Help Us Raise the Money to Win

With 13 unexpected local by elections, Norwich Liberal Democrats desperately need the money to start campaigning again now.

After spending tens of thousands of pounds to elect Simon Wright as our new MP in May, the party here in Norwich has no money left.

Neither do East of England Liberal Democrats. And neither does the national party.

These elections will be the first major electoral test for the Lib Dems since we entered into the coalition government. All eyes will be on us.

So it's vital that we make sure we have the money to win.

With your help we will show that the Lib Dems are the party on the up here in the East.

Every penny you can give will make a huge difference to our campaign.

New Liberal Democrat MP for Norwich South, Simon Wright, with party leader Nick Clegg. With your help we can build on our success here in the East of England.
